

Bradley Hills Presbyterian Church
August 31, 2025
Holy Humor Sunday
10:00 a.m. Worship

A Special Welcome

Thank you for joining us for worship today!

We hope that the presence of the Holy Spirit and the warmth of Christ's love are gifts to you as we worship God together. We encourage you to explore our bulletin, fill out a Visitor Card or the red fellowship pad at the end of your pew, and take home a welcome folder found just outside the Sanctuary.

We are a caring community of friends who come from a variety of backgrounds to seek God in this place. We are united by our faith in Christ, our care and nurture of children and families, our love of learning, our appreciation of music and worship, our passion for service, and our desire to deepen our spiritual lives. Bradley Hills is a safe place to ask the deep questions of life and a community that embraces each spiritual journey.

We seek to be a welcoming witness to the love of Jesus Christ. We believe that diversity in our membership--different ages, genders, ethnicities, abilities, races, sexual orientations, ideological and theological beliefs, and experiences - is an important strength. We come from a variety of denominational backgrounds and from around the world. We are all God's children, united by God's love.

Childcare is available for infants and toddlers ages 3 and under in our nursery. All children are welcome to grab an activity board and children's bulletins for the service.

We hope we have a chance to greet you and get to know you. There are a lot of exciting activities happening at BHPC that we would love for you to be a part of. If we can share any information about the church or be of support to you in any way, just let us know. We invite you to explore our website at

WELCOME AND CONGREGATIONAL LIFE SHARED

Pastor David Gray

One: This is the day that the Lord has made.

All: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

CONFESSING AND PRAISING

PRAYER OF ADORATION AND CONFESSION

Pastor Denise Diaab

Loving God, as we rejoice in the gift of joy, we also confess the ways we have abused the gifts you give us. We fall short of your glory when we laugh at the expense of another; when we use humor to tear others down. So we ask for the wisdom to promote and enjoy good humor. God, teach us to take ourselves lightly, for you have promised to love and save us; to laugh when the moment is right, to defuse tension with an injection of humor, and to distinguish between that which builds up and that which tears down. Open our hearts to your forgiveness as we confess...

Silence for personal confession.

KYRIE

arr. David Johnson

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

DCYFM Rosanna Howard, David and Denise

Prayer for our Young Disciples (unison)

"Holy God, as these children begin their studies, we ask a blessing on their backpacks in which they carry their books and notebooks, markers, and pens and pencils. Bless their teachers and administrators. Bless, each child gathered here and on line that they will grow in knowledge of you. We have promised to love and nurture them at their baptism. Keep them safe, keep them excited about school, keep them ever seeking to learn and to develop their gifts. Grant that they may gain the tools to grow in love, faith and service, all their days. Amen."

Kids ages 3 years old to 4th grade are invited to Summer Church School with all ages combined together during the 10:00 a.m. service. Parents may pick up their children upstairs in the education hallway.

FALL SERMON SERIES

Being a Christian in the 21st Century

Preacher: Pastor David Gray

8:30 & 10:30 am

Sept. 7: What We Choose

Sept. 14: Following Jesus

Sept. 21: Into the Future

Sept. 28: Of the Kingdom

As we now hit the quarter century mark, we'll take stock of the context of our ministry, thinking about the world around us and within and look at what it means to be a Christian in this unique 21st century. Our guide will be Jesus' teachings in the parables of the New Testament. Through these Gospel stories, Jesus connected ancient wisdom about the kingdom of God to the context of his time. Christ's teachings have deep value for living in our time too. Join us this fall.

Invitation to Gatherings about BHPC's Future

Dear BHPC community,

We are anticipating an exciting fall at Bradley Hills. 70 years ago, spiritual friends dreamed of a church that would have a generational, life-changing impact on multitudes of people throughout the greater DC area and beyond. This year, we celebrate that, for 70 years, this bold vision has been manifested in and through the people of BHPC to have a positive impact on our community. As we celebrate our cherished past and honor our present, we now look to where God may be calling us for the future.

I'm inviting the members and friends of Bradley Hills to imagine the life-changing impact of a church that is prepared for that future. In 2023, our Session approved the recommendations of our Strategic Visioning Task Force Report which encouraged, among other things, the church to take bold action to ensure the long-term sustainability of BHPC at 6601 Bradley Blvd.

In that spirit, I invite you to join me for a time of dreaming and visioning as we consider our next steps as a church family.

Here are the details for a series of "First Impressions Gatherings" scheduled for later this month and early September. Because we want everyone to be able to attend a gathering, we are providing multiple opportunities. Why "first impressions?" Before launching into a potential capital campaign, we would like to receive feedback and input from our community. I would love for you to be at the table for one of these gatherings. If these dates don't work for you, I, and our Session, look forward to having a chance to connect with you in the coming weeks.

First Impression Gatherings

1. (in person) Sunday, Sept 7, following 10:30 a.m. worship, in Covenant Hall

2. (virtual) Sunday, Sept 7 by Zoom, 7:00 p.m., by scanning the QR code below:

Adult Education | September

September 7, 14, 21 | Dr. R. Bruce Douglass (and close friend of Bradley Hills,) Director Emeritus, Reformed Institute of Metropolitan Washington and former Chair of the Department of Government at Georgetown University will be presenting a three part series:

REFORMED POLITICAL THOUGHT IN AN AGE OF CATASTROPHE (1914-1945)

Between 1914 and 1945, the West experienced a series of catastrophic political and economic developments. Not only did these developments call into question important parts of the beliefs that "advanced" thinkers had previously held, but they also confronted the societies in question with serious ethical challenges. It was a time when radical ideologies attracted wide followings, making it difficult for democratic regimes to govern. It was also a time when war took on a totalizing character that had devastating effects throughout much of the world. In addition, the global economy suffered a depression of unusual magnitude. During this period Reformed Protestants continued to play influential roles in public life, but they were forced to rethink a number of the assumptions they had inherited from their 19th century predecessors. Under the leadership of such figures as Karl Barth, Emil Brunner, and the Niebuhr brothers, they found themselves returning to key parts of the Reformation heritage as they sought to bring their faith to bear on the multiple crises through which the world was living:

Session #1 - War

Session #2 – Radical ideologies

Session #3 – Depression

Dr. Douglass never fails to enlighten and remind us about how our faith has addressed the challenges of the past and the similarities and differences to those of today.

September 28 | Bradley Hills: The Church of the Future After celebrating Bradley Hills past 70 years, David Gray will engage us in a session that explores the possibilities and challenges for our future.

Adult Education meets at 9:15 a.m. in the Lounge and on Zoom. Childcare is provided.

Join via Zoom.

In-Person Meeting to Provide Comments on Draft BHPC Antiracism Policy

Sunday, October 5

11:45 a.m. -12:45 p.m. (immediately following worship service)

Covenant Hall

Earlier this spring, the Racial Justice Coordinating Committee (RJCC) invited volunteers from our congregation to participate in drafting an Antiracism Policy, which our PC (USA) denomination requires every church to have. After receiving feedback from the BHPC Session, members of the BHPC RJCC met with several of the Lay Ministry groups to receive comments. Following the worship service on October 5, we are inviting the congregation to meet to discuss the draft policy and provide comments.

Please scan the QR code to read the draft policy. Copies will also be available in the Narthex.

If you have written comments, please forward them to Don Picard by October 5.

Participating in Music this Fall

This fall, we welcome Paul Vasile to be our Interim Director of Music Ministries for the program year to come. Paul is a highly respected and sought-after musician in our denomination. He often is asked to provide music at national PCUSA events and in our Presbytery, NEXT church, Massanetta and CREDO. He has taught widely and is often brought in as a consultant and interim by churches like ours. Paul is considered a highly collaborative, excellent, and inclusive musician. He has bachelor's and master's degrees in music and piano performance, and has served in churches in St. Louis, DC and New York City for more than 20 years.

Paul's first Sunday with us will be September 7.

If you are interested in trying out our chancel choir, its first rehearsal of the fall will be September 4. We'll have opportunities for children, youth and adults to participate in music this fall at BHPC.

Resource: An Altar in the World by Barbara Brown Taylor

If you had the pleasure of seeing and hearing Rev. Dr. Barbara Brown Taylor during our 70th Anniversary Gala weekend, you'll want to participate in Fall Small Groups as we use her book to "discover the spiritual treasures to be found by engaging with real life in the real world through ordinary physical activities." By engaging in the practices, Taylor "hopes that [these practices] will help us recognize some of the altars in this world - ordinary-looking places where human beings have met and may continue to meet up with the divine that they sometimes call God." Even if you missed the opportunity to see Dr. Taylor, you won't want to miss Fall Small Groups.

Small Groups will meet at the following times:

Sunday, 4:00 p.m., in-person

Sunday, 7:00 p.m., in-person

Sunday, 7:00 p.m. on Zoom

Thursday, 7:00 p.m. on Zoom

ICPC Book Discussion | Tuesday, October 28 at 7:00 in Covenant Hall

The Undocumented Americans by Karla Cornejo Villavicencio

This is an opportunity to get to know members of BHPC, BJC, and MIIC better by reading and discussing a book about a timely subject. This book is written by one of the first undocumented immigrants to graduate from Harvard. Cornejo Villavicencio traveled across the country to capture the accounts of undocumented Americans who have been stereotyped, abused, and considered expendable. The stories she tells are not deferential or naively inspirational but show the full spectrum of emotions that infuse the day-to-day lives of her subjects. (The book was a National Book Award Finalist.)

For more information, please contact Marilyn Allen, BHPC; Karen Levi, BJC; Laurie Mabile, BJC; or Shaheen Khan, Maqaame Ibrahim Islamic Center (MIIC).

We are proud of our play-based approach to early childhood education, our commitment to each child's social-emotional development, and the amazing age-appropriate programming our teachers provide daily for our students.

In 2023, thanks to overwhelming community support, BHP CNS was voted the Best Preschool in Bethesda by Bethesda Magazine. We hope to regain this honor in 2025. To do so, we need your vote. Vote for BHP CNS and your other local favorites, at: <https://moco360.media/best-of-bethesda/>. Thank you, in advance, for your support of our school.

We have limited openings for the 2025-26 school year. Our play-based program, taught by loving teachers, is the ideal first school experience for your child or grandchild.
